

10 Stories of Frankston Historical Exhibition

Drawing by Meredith Forster from a photo from "Call it Seaford" by Carmen Tomlison.
Catch at Seaford of approximately 2000 fish in December 1938 by Rob Herbert, Harley Klauer and Ernie Gay.

Saturday, 28 April @ Frankston
Football Club,
Functions by the Bay
from 10am - 4pm
FREE

10 stories that helped shape our community to pass on to the next generation

Where did the name come from?

The fishing village

The pioneers

The struggle for central park

The early characters

Fatal shark attacks

Proudly presented by Kananook Creek Association Inc. and Frankston Historical Society, with support from Frankston City Council
For more information: www.frankstonmusicfestival.org

